Let's Explore!

Sally writes about the many* things she did on her trip. What did she do in Africa?

* Remember that quantifiers can be used with count and non-count nouns.

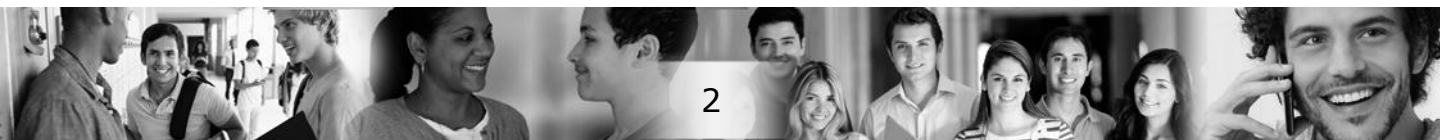

Instructions: Read the dialogue aloud.

There are many things to do in Africa! I got back from the Namibian safari yesterday. It was even better than the one I went on before. I snapped lots of photos! I'll add more photos, when I have the time.

If you visit Africa, you'll have to take a helicopter tour over the Sossusvlei Dunes. They are as red as blood.

I went on a hike and stayed in a luxury tent. I felt like I was sleeping in the heart of Mother Nature. I saw many mammals at the nature reserve. I think leopards and jaguars look similar. It's easy to get them confused but jaguars have smaller spots than leopards. My favorite big cat is the cheetah. They're the fastest and most interesting!

This was the best trip ever! If I get the chance, I'll definitely come back.

Let's Practice!

One part is the condition. The other part is the result.

Form:

If + subject + Simple Present tense + subject + will

You use a comma after the condition in this form.

You can flip the two parts of the sentence so that the result comes first. It can be in interrogative form.

Form:

Will + subject + if + subject + Simple Present tense ?

Condition	Result
If you visit Africa,	you'll have to visit Namibia!
